

LAST GREAT BATTLE BALKAN WAR IS NOW BEING FOUGHT? Attack on Tchatalja Liner Began Sunday and Is Still Raging; War to a Close Soon

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Judging from all precedents in the present war, the news from Constantinople tonight is the herald of another Turkish defeat at the Tchatalja line, where a battle has been on for the last two or three days. The Turkish admission that so many armed are arriving at the capital to show that the Turks are offering the same has great significance in view of the previous admissions of a similar nature and may be regarded as preparing the public for another appointment. It may be quite possible that this will prove the last great battle of the campaign.

There are indications that Bulgaria has foregone a triumphal entry into Constantinople. According to some reports Bulgaria will be content with finding suitable winter quarters for her army while peace negotiations are being on.

Mediation Progressing

The question of mediation has made another step forward in the announcement from Paris tonight that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting a request for mediation to the belligerents and in inquiring on what terms an alliance is desired to accept mediation.

The revelation of this danger to European peace, living in the urgent interests of Austria and Serbia, has been quickly understood by the powers and the only of the Balkan states, the only in which a working in immediate operation is in progress, is the danger to the Balkan problems as a whole.

Another factor in the making of a peace is the fact that the six day cease-fire has been accepted by all the belligerents.

There is still talk in Vienna of some kind of a truce, but it is not likely to be accepted by the powers.

The question of mediation has made another step forward in the announcement from Paris tonight that the Austrian government has agreed to join with the other powers in transmitting a request for mediation to the belligerents and in inquiring on what terms an alliance is desired to accept mediation.

TURKISH SOLDIER PRESENTS MOST VIVID PICTURE HUMAN DISTRESS

French Newspaper Man Gives Lurid Description of Sultan's Army, Famished With Hunger

PARIS, Nov. 11.—A staff correspondent of the Temps Jean Rodos who has reached Constantinople from the war zone, sends a vivid picture of the misery of the Turkish soldiers and the disorganization of the Turkish army. He says:

We have witnessed the failure of the Turkish soldier. We have seen him dying of hunger, worn out by fatigue, wrecked by suffering and running away after having abandoned his place in the combat.

I have never seen a more poignant picture of human distress than that presented by these unhappy men, thrown into one of the most terrible wars in history, without food, without medical attention, almost without shelter, almost without arms. At the bedside of a soldier whose right hand had been severed held out to us, begging for medical help, the bleeding stump around which he had tied a piece of towel.

Pathetic Spectacles.

I saw long lines of famished men who came to our tent begging for a crumb of bread and staggering away without a murmur of complaint when told that we had none to give. I saw a thousand wounded leaving a trail of blood as they dragged themselves to wards Tihori. I saw hundreds of others fall by the wayside, dying from wounds and fatigue.

At Tihori a column of soldiers, a brigade in appearance, struggled through the streets in a rain and wind storm. No one paid any attention to them. They had no shelter, nothing to eat. From a nearby bakery an officer threw out handfuls of bread and the soldiers fought for the loaves. More than half of them got nothing and turned away, blind and weak.

Famished and Exhausted

BURNO DECLARES ALL RAG DANCES AT END

Dance Hall Owners Called on Carpet and Told That Arrest May Follow

Dances of an objectionable nature the bunny hug and all others, which have attained a degree of popularity in Colorado Springs under an edict of Chief of Police Burno, who started the craze yesterday by warning certain dance promoters, whom he summoned to police headquarters.

I informed these persons, said Chief Burno, that they must run their dances right or not at all. If they persist in including objectionable dances in their programs, they must expect interference by the police with the result that we will close them up without further warning. There is no doubt as to the demoralizing effect of these suggestive dances upon the character of the young—especially little girls who are permitted to witness or even take part in them.

Includes All Public Functions

Two public dances at which it is said a specialty is made of ragging are the first to come under the ban of the police, but the warning is directed against all public functions in which the proprieties may be violated by a departure from the accepted standards. As widespread is the rage for the new dances that the ordinance will be enforced with a special session of the legislature.

PRES.-ELECT WILSON IS UNCERTAIN ABOUT TARIFF REVISION "EXTRA"

Invites Opinion Leading Democrats--Presented With Invitation to Winter in South Carolina

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 11.—President-elect Wilson has his mind upon the question of whether he should call an extra session of congress to revise the tariff.

He asked the newspaper correspondents tonight to obtain for him a list of the public men and business men who had declared themselves for or against the extra session. Although the governor has tried to follow closely in the newspapers the various expressions of opinion he said tonight he was afraid it might have misused some of them in his reading and that he was anxious to get all the opinions before him.

It is known that Governor Wilson has a high regard for the opinion of the Democrats in the last session and in making up his mind he will give careful attention to Mr. Underwood's arguments.

Mr. Underwood is expected to make an extra session.

Wants List of Names.

I have no immediate intention of making an announcement, said the president-elect tonight. I would like to get the names of those who have given affirmative opinions in regard to the advisability of calling an extra session. I refer not only to members of congress but to all important Democratic leaders.

The president-elect was asked if he had received many requests that an extra session be called.

No, I have not, he replied, but I am an answer for the telegrams I have received, he told the press.

He said he was not at all sure that he would call an extra session, but he would think it over.

RESCUE CAR WILL TRY TO SMOTHER LAFAYETTE FIRE

LAFAYETTE, Colo., Nov. 11.—Although reported under control temporarily, the fire in the Simpson mine at this place has become such a menace to the life of the miners that the United States bureau of mines has been called upon for assistance in coping with the danger. The rescue car, whose crew has been fighting the fire in the Simpson mine at Aspen, was ordered to Lafayette and arrived this morning. In the lighted mines of northern Colorado a fire once started will often burn for years. The only successful method of dealing with such a fire is to smother it. This is done by the use of cement, earth, etc.

In the Simpson mine the usual methods have been followed, but last Friday the smothered fire blew out off the barriers that had been built to cut off the air, killed John W. Higgins, the shift boss, and burned like Griffith so badly that he may die, and seriously injured four others.

A feature of the new reports was the showing in Butte county complete of 1173 more votes than were reported from 74 of 84 precincts in the county.

of hunger and that men are dying of starvation in the trenches.
The Telegraph's correspondent wired Sunday that the Bulgarian advance had begun and that Nezim Pasha, the Turkish commander-in-chief, had notified his government that he could offer no effective resistance.
Fugitives on their way to Constantinople had been stopped by bayonets. Fresh troops from the capital had done nothing to restore order.
A Sofia despatch to the Times says: "With a view to improving communication with the army before Thessalonika, railway is being built whereby trains can run to Lule Burgaz and Thessalonika."
"About 8,000 men, mostly Turkish prisoners, are engaged in this work, which will be completed in about a fortnight."

Attack Began Sunday.
CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 11 (10 p. m.).—The Bulgarians began an attack on the Turkish advanced position along the Thessalonika line yesterday afternoon. The fighting continued throughout today.
Judging from the number of wounded arriving in Constantinople, the Turkish troops are offering a fierce resistance.
The ports tonight sent a telegram to the Turkish representatives abroad, inquiring what progress had been made with respect to obtaining the conditions of an armistice. The ports is still without a reply to its recent appeal to the powers.

Cholera Breaks Out.
Cholera has appeared among the Bulgarian troops, according to reports.
The number of wounded soldiers reaching the capital is increasing to such an extent that the war office has decided to send a contingent to Brussels in Asia Minor. Every possible accommodation in the capital is being utilized for the care of the wounded. Several warehouses, wings of the barracks, and other buildings have been transformed into hospitals, and two large hospitals in the suburb of Kadikoi were opened today. The Unionists and other political clubs temporarily closed by order of the government have been converted into hospitals.
An official bulletin says that during the last 24 hours six new cases of cholera, with two deaths, have occurred among the refugees. The usual sanitary measures are being applied to ships leaving Constantinople.

DIAZ ESCAPES FROM MEXICAN PRISON?

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 11.—Gen. Felix Diaz has escaped from prison, according to a letter received here today by E. G. Kirwan of this city from R. H. Dickerson at Oaxaca, Mexico.
Dickerson is from Boston, and is interested in mining in Mexico. The letter was dated Oaxaca, November 3, and that part of it bearing on the reported escape of Diaz follows:
"This afternoon a special edition came out here saying Gen. Felix Diaz had escaped from prison by bribing sentries and gone by boat down the coast. The whole town is wild, and Emilio goes around with a broad grin on his face. Emilio says he is going with several other Mexicans here."

Kirwan says the Emilio referred to is Felix Diaz's nephew. Kirwan, who recently returned from Mexico, said he inferred from Dickerson's letter that news of the escape of Diaz was suppressed by the government because of the effect it would have on other rebels.

patch to the Telegraph says Dr. Danoff has given assurance that Bulgaria would try to induce Serbia to abandon her claims to Albanian territory and an Adriatic port.
It is also reported, according to the dispatch, that Dr. Danoff said that if Serbia persisted in her claims, "Bulgaria would refuse to support her."

The Vienna correspondent of the Daily Mail says Austria and Italy have informed Serbia that she must limit her ambition of obtaining a coast line on the Adriatic by the occupation of Albania.
Communications were made by the Austrian and Italian ministers at Belgrade, who informed the Serbian premier that Austria intended to enforce her interests in Albania, and that any Serbian occupation could not be permanent.
E. Mochitchich is reported to have replied in an unsatisfactory way to the effect that he could make no promises, as, like Turkey, Albania is the enemy of the Balkan league, and that territory must be occupied.
"Absolute reticence" is maintained with regard to the military conference at Budapest Monday, the correspondent adds, but there is reason to believe that no military action is expected yet. Diplomacy is still working on the problem. The situation is not critical, but may become so in the turn of a hand.

BULGARIANS HAVE NOT

available man was armed with any obsolete weapon that could be found. The Bulgarians were confident, not with confidence, but in the blind belief that something would happen favorable to the Turks.

Guns Open Fire.

"During lunch Sunday the rum of the musketry opened with a terrific roar. This caused an indescribable panic among the Greek and Armenian population, who thought it was the precursor of a general attack and massacre. The majority fled for shelter to the consulates which were frantically swarmed with gesticulating, frantic men, weeping women and howling children. We did our best to stop the panic by pointing out there was no danger and that the Moslems were firing at the enemy, a long way off, not at the town. But every time the batteries fired a broadside the houses were shaken to their foundations and a wild babel of sounds from terrified thousands broke out afresh.
"We hastened to the highest roof to watch the attack. The Turkish troops, who defended the town, were ranged in a long thin line right around the town but they could offer resistance to the invincible invader for no great length of time. The fighting lasted throughout the afternoon, the Bulgarians steadily approaching until their bullets were whistling over the houses, causing the entire populace to take to their cellars.

Rodosto Holding Out.

Every one expected the Bulgarians to bring up their artillery and bombard the town, but either because they were not strong enough to do so, or they did not press the attack. When night fell they were encircling the doomed port with an ever thickening ring of batteries while the feeble and dispirited Turkish garrison was still in possession of the most indefensible outer works.
The correspondent got to Constantinople by a French steamer which the refugees stormed.

He concluded his dispatch as follows: "When we left Rodosto was still holding out, but the Bulgarians bring reinforcements it must fall."

rate for water in the buildings. The buildings and grounds of the institution under the state of a tax exempt from taxation. The institution has an endowment of $1,000,000 drawing 6 percent interest also exempt from taxation.

In addition to this, about 2 acres of land are owned by the city. The city is planning to continue to build a new water works and the city is planning to build a new water works and the city is planning to build a new water works.

Other Institutions Are Considered.

The Y. M. C. A. is furnished free water for its 32 rooms, swimming pool, numerous baths and toilet facilities while entering into competition with smaller hotels which are compelled to pay the regular water rate. The regular rate, if paid by the Y. M. C. A., would amount to about $600.

A bill rate is in effect for the school for the deaf and the blind, which has recently added new buildings. Mayor Avery said that a reasonable advance could be made for that institution.

In many well-regulated cities, the water metering system is paid for the sprinkling of streets. That means that the sprinkling area would be placed in a sprinkling district with a fixed monthly charge for the service. Such revenue would apply toward offsetting the estimated cost of $3,500 for sprinkling next year, and, in addition, should give a nominal payment for the water.

The total estimated increase of $8,000 on all buildings, the mayor recommended, could be used toward relieving and paying interest on bonds. The council is compelled under the ordinance to set aside $77,000 for a sinking fund in 1913 and pay $81,500 interest on water bonds.

Suggests a City Depository.

The mayor recommended that an ordinance be enacted creating a city depository, by which the city might derive revenue by a percentage on daily bank balances, a plan in effect in many cities. In Colorado Springs, he estimated that the revenue, at about 2 1/2 percent, would amount to not less than $2,500 a year.

By doubling the license on motor-cycles and automobiles, the mayor estimated that another $5,250 could be raised for the city. The average license for motorcycles now is $2 and for automobiles $7.50.

Mayor Avery advised the commissioners to levy a reasonable rental on the poles and wires of public utility corporations, the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies, the electric company, and the street railway. By enacting such an ordinance he estimated that another $15,000 could be raised.

Outside of the water revenue people enjoying special privileges under the recommendations of Mayor Avery would add about $23,000 to the city revenue to be distributed among the various departments, now confronted by the excess of estimated expenditures over estimated revenues.

When the last million barrels of cement purchased shall have been used in the construction of the Panama canal, the amount so authorized will be reached a total of 2,200,000,000 pounds.

REPUBLICAN PARTY MUST CHANGE FRONT

Cummings-Kenyon-Hadley Idea

Is to Organize a New Movement

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A report from Iowa that the Senators Cummings and Kenyon of that state and Governor Hadley of Missouri had entered into a combination to organize the Republican party of that state, progressive lines as the basis of much comment here today.

Only Progressive Senators in the city were Senator Dix of Montana, who managed Colonel Roosevelt's campaign, and Senator Works of California, who refused to support either Roosevelt or Taft. Senator Dixon was inclined to attach little importance to the movement and Senator Works to favor it.

What was the origin of the fact that the 4,000,000 votes away from the party? Senator Dix in 1904. He refused to discuss the question of the utilization of Progressive in the Senate with either the Republicans or the Democrats but said it was the purpose of the Progressive party to continue its independent course in the nation.

Senator Works warmly endorsed the Cummings-Kenyon-Hadley idea.

If it is a plan to have the Republican party have to change front, he said.

The idea that the party will have to change front is the result of the late election in 1908. The result of the late election in 1908.

tragic victory in losing the entire majority forces of politics—should be a source of pride not only to those who lost but to all who are in the capacity of understanding and in the capacity of Americans for self government.

Not One-Man Movement

During the campaign I said repeatedly that this was no one-man movement, but a movement for the people, a movement which has sprung as all healthy movements in our democratic government must spring from the heart and conscience of the people themselves. This truth must be kept steadily before the minds of all of us.

The Progressive party has come to stay. If either of the old parties will endeavor to put into legislation any one of our planks it will find upon our hearty support in so doing, but we will not rest content until the entire platform is enacted into law and becomes part of our official system national and state.

I am proud indeed that the great good fortune has been mine to fight shoulder to shoulder with the men and women who in the ranks and in various positions of leadership have waged this great battle for social and industrial justice. So far, it has been over, the battle has just begun. We will not rest content until every feature of the Progressive program has been put into effect and when this has been done, unquestionably there will have been opened to us new avenues along which it will still be a duty to work for the moral and economic betterment of our people.

WICKERSHAM TO DELAY TRIAL "BATH TUB" TRUST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Attorney General Wickersham, it was learned today, will not retry the criminal anti-trust suit against the so-called bath tub trust until the supreme court decides the civil case against the same alleged combination. The postponement of the retrial is due to a desire to have all the important issues of the case revolving largely about patent rights settled by the supreme court.

M'MANIGAL WAS A "REAL DYNAMITER"

Continues Relation of Sordid Story of Explosions in Various Cities

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 11.—From that date of his career when he had discarded dynamite and was seeking to use it only as a tool in which to carry out his plans, M'Manigal was the most dangerous of men. He had been in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time.

During 12 years of his life, he had been in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time.

They did not know how to use the alarm clock arrangement we had for setting off bombs, said M'Manigal. I was sent to Chicago to forward 100 feet of fuse by special delivery. It arrived in time and the Akron job was blown up July 4.

McManigal came to Indianapolis in 1901. He was in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time, and had been in the city for some time.

Webb met me in Jersey City and took me out to show me what to blow up. While I surveyed the job, he stood back saying the workmen knew him around there. That night after waiting two hours to learn that the watchman made a round only once an hour, I placed two bombs in some girders after midnight July 9. In the morning I saw Webb with a newspaper giving an account of the explosion.

On the way back I stopped at Stanton, but did not get to Hannon. At Pittsburgh I bought a dozen alarm clocks and on July 15 blew up the McKees Rock job.

When I got back to Indianapolis, McManigal was talking to his brother James B., who said he had received a telegram from Clancy at San Francisco and that he (James B.) was going to the coast. I said to his brother, "Look up Clancy as soon as you arrive and he'll put you in touch with the bunch and the old man."

On the way to Chicago, when I left him J. B. said he expected to be three months on the coast that they wanted some one to go out and clean up the coast, particularly Los Angeles, that they had had a couple of fellows working out there but they did not get any results. Later I received a telegram from J. B. dated at Seattle.

I went to Omaha and on July 21 blew up a job there with eight quarts of nitroglycerin. I knew the explosion occurred, for I heard it while waiting for a Chicago train at the station half a mile away.

McManigal "Real Dynamiter"

J. J. wanted to know when I returned to Indianapolis why I had caused two explosions on the job. I told him a watchman and a dog was following me around and I did not take any chances. I was afraid the dog would scent me out in the dark.

J. J. gave me 14 quarts more and told me to go to Milwaukee and get in touch with William E. Reddin and then to do a job at Superior, Wis. I went to Milwaukee and buried six quarts on West Wells street. There I met Reddin, telling him the Milwaukee job had been blown up, and he said that he had blown up yet but he said let J. J. know when the material arrived. I blew up the Superior job August 1.

I took a Duluth newspaper account of the explosion back to J. J. but he said he had beaten me to it. Fred Mooney at Duluth had written him a letter thanking him for sending a real dynamiter in there.

REPORTED DEAL IS DENIED BY DR. RICE

Says No Negotiations on for Sale of Street Railway to Traction Magnate

Denial of the report that any action toward the sale of the Colorado Springs and Interurban Railway company's holdings was made during the visit of W. B. McKinley, traction magnate of Champaign, Ill., and nomination campaign manager for President Taft, and H. E. Chubbuck, of Florida, 11-2 superintendent of McKinley's holdings, was made yesterday by Dr. D. H. Rice, president of the local railway company.

"These men were out here on a pleasure trip and nothing more," said Dr. Rice. "Both worked hard in the election campaign, and Mr. Chubbuck persuaded Mr. McKinley to stop off here to take the Pikes Peak trip. Both being traction men, we took them over the system and showed them the place. They were greatly pleased with the system, but as far as seriously suggesting a deal for buying it, there was nothing brought up at all. Mr. Chubbuck is an old friend of D. P. Strickler, attorney for the street railway company, and has visited here before."

Dr. Rice said that negotiations for the sale of the street car company has been on at various times, but that these had never gone very far. "Of course we will sell the system, but so far we have not been offered the price we ask," he declared. The company is capitalized at $3,000,000 and it is understood the trustees of the Stratton estate have set $2,500,000 as a selling price. There have been no bidders at that figure so far as can be learned. Dr. Rice refused to give out any figures on what he asks for the property.

Mr. McKinley and Mr. Chubbuck went to Denver yesterday morning en route to the coast, where they will spend several weeks. Both admitted that their trip is for more than pleasure, but gave nothing out on the local situation with the exception that they complimented the management of the local street car lines for their proficiency.

Mr. Chubbuck made the ascent of Pikes Peak 30 years ago by the burro trail and said that for the last ten years he has been particularly anxious to travel over the cog road, which he did Sunday.

DOG WILL BE A WITNESS TO DETERMINE OWNERSHIP

A valuable Scotch collie, for which a replevin was issued yesterday, will be summoned into court as an important witness to determine the ownership, a controversy between James P. Bussey, who was a candidate for sheriff on the Democratic ticket, and J. P. Smythe, of 314 West Boulder street, that a jury in Justice Dunnington's court will endeavor to settle next Friday.

The mayor, the police department, officers of the justice court and neighbors for blocks around it, is said, have been besieged in an effort to adjust the matter out of court. All advised that the disputants settle their controversy in court.

Bussey says the dog was given to his children by Henry Cusdy. Smith claims ownership on the assertion that he bought the dog from a milkman.

PLAN REPAIRS TO DAM NO. 4 COSTING $15,000

Improvements at reservoir No. 4, involving an expenditure of $15,000 are recommended by City Engineer E. E. Mellon in a report to Mayor Avery which will be presented to the city council tomorrow. Defects in original construction of the reservoir makes partial reconstruction absolutely necessary, says Mr. Mellon. If the reservoir is to be operated at full capacity, the report refers in complimentary terms to the work of Water Superintendent McReynolds on the system, and states that when he attempted to increase the storage capacity of the reservoir last June, he was confronted with leaks in the downward slope of the dam, which threatened to impair the entire water system. The leaks exist within four feet of the spillway, but six feet below that level, the present storage level--the dam is water-tight. The full storage capacity of the reservoir is 34,000,000 gallons, but it now contains only about 37,000,000 gallons.

City Engineer Mellon recommends that reconstruction consist in bringing the puddle wall and puddle face with suitable material within at least five feet of the crest to insure against further leaks, and that provision should be made to install in the rear of the embankment a longitudinal drainage trench filled with broken stone.

The original cost of reservoir No. 4, which is situated on Beaver creek at the west end of the St. John tunnel, was $180,000. The proposed improvements to cost $15,000 will include: 15,000 cubic yards of grading, $2,750; 2,000 lineal feet rock-filled trenches, $4,000; 2,000 square yards rip-rap, $1,000; replacing valve house, $250.
